Namibia Agricultural Union says thank you.

“Without organised agriculture and the inputs of agricultural unions, there will definitely be a gap in the agricultural industry”, Mr Ryno van der Merwe, President of the Namibia Agricultural Union said at a breakfast the NAU hosted for its sponsors. He added: “Besides the peace and stability that Namibia offers, the involvement and financial support of companies to organised agriculture contribute largely to the success of agriculture.”

Agra; Bank Windhoek; Engen; First National Bank; Meatco; Mutual & Federal; NAMCO; Namib Meulens; Polyoak Packaging; PRO distribution; Standard Bank and Voermeester supported the NAU in various ways during the past year. This support helped the NAU to achieve their objectives being:

- Clarity and security on land ownership/rights and land use;
- Optimal and sustainable utilization of agricultural potential (natural and external environment);
- Effective and efficient communication to all stakeholders;
- Unity and harmony amongst agricultural producers;
- Improvement of all human capacity in the agricultural sector;
- Effective and efficient management of the NAU personnel and structures;
- Position the NAU as a respected role-player in public private partnerships.

“The Namibia Agricultural Union is committed to make a difference and without the financial support and involvement of our sponsors it would be very difficult to reach our objectives”, van der Merwe said as he thanked the sponsors.

Ends.
