No price increase for maize meal at AGRA

At Agra, clients will still be able to buy maize meal at the old price.

When the news broke that maize meal prices will increase with 11 – 14%, Agra pro-actively stocked up on the product and bought a large consignment of maize meal from all their suppliers. This enables Agra to offer all the brands of maize meal to clients at the current price for a while longer at all Agra branches.

“We realize that maize meal is an important commodity, the most important in many households in Namibia and therefore took measurements to alleviate the impact of the price increase”, said Graeme Schaefer, Group Buyer of Agra.

Ends.
