TOP RANK SHOTTIST IN SAFARI DEN/PMP PROAMM SHOOTING COMPETITION.

Seventy five shooters participated and 352 targets were shot in the Safari Den and PMP/ProAmm shooting competition on Saturday 24 September at the Moltke Blick shooting range outside Windhoek.

Overall first and second place from the ranks of Safari Den's staff and the overall success of the competition show the commitment of Safari Den to its weapon and ammunition division. André van Eck, manager of Safari Den was the overall winner of the competition, achieving an excellent grouping of 6,95mm with his 308 Win 168 gr. This places André second on the PMP/ProAmm overall ranking list. Jorn Brummund, gunsmith at Safari Den was second overall in this competition with a grouping of 9mm, with his 308 Win 168 gr.

Seventeen targets for a grouping of 18mm and less were successful. These participants qualify for the ProAmm National Championships on 27 October 2011 in Pretoria. The participants shooting these groupings were André van Eck, Jorn Brummund, André Bennett, Jaques Malan, Hasso Ahrens, Francois Marais, Nelia Engels, Zandr  Duvenhage, Sven Ahrens, Van Wyk Gerber, Coen Grimbeek, Annemarie van Dyk and Stavros Beukes.

Nelia Engels with a 270 Win 150gr, was first in the ladies' category with a qualifying grouping of 12,48mm and Annemarie van Dyk was second with her 270 Win 130gr, also qualifying with a grouping of 16,89mm. The best junior shooter was Jacques Malan with three qualifying groupings of 11,15; 14,51 and 16,95mm.

Winners walked away with arms full of prizes sponsored by PMP and Safari Den.
